Conference overview

Join us for an enlightening and transformative conference designed specifically for school and mental health professionals. This event will delve into the principles and practices of holistic health, emphasizing the vital mind-body connection. Through a series of workshops, expert presentations, and interactive sessions, attendees will explore innovative therapeutic approaches that integrate horticulture, art therapy, and equine therapy.

Our intended audience includes physicians, physician assistants, nurses, nurse practitioners, psychologists, social workers, and school educators.

CME accreditation

Allegheny General Hospital is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.
